Assignments

Reading Assignments

Selected readings from textbook, periodicals or library collection covering and expanding on topics discussed in lecture.

For example:

1. Read the Time Magazine article about Laramie, Wyoming in connection with The Laramie Project.
2. Read Act 1 of Crumbs from the Table of Joy.

Writing Assignments

1. Written evaluations of plays viewed and read in class. For example: Write a three-page, typewritten analysis of how elements of the opera Madam Butterfly influence the play M. Butterfly by David Henry Hwang.
2. Topical essays expanding on course material. For example: Write a three page paper discussing how African American stereotypes are represented in the play Re-Membering Aunt Jemima: A Menstrual Show.

Other Assignments

1. Research paper or other major project that develops a related topic in-depth.

For example: Students are to select a paper topic covering some aspect of a period or formal theater movement covered in the course this semester. This paper is designed as a research project and students are expected to go beyond the level of information found in the course textbook. Students must find a minimum of five sources for this paper. Of those five, no more than two may be periodical sources and no internet sources are allowed, except where students can demonstrate the academic verifiability and validity of a source. Paper will be in the MLA format using parenthetical citations. The body of the text must be a minimum of 7 pages and no more than 15. Work will be graded on a 50 point rubric that evaluates format; development of the body of the text including a thesis, relevant examples, integration of research, conclusion and merit of original premise, punctuation, grammar; bibliography; citations and use of images.
