00:07:42    Shawna Bynum (she/her):      Welcome Arcie!
00:19:22    Karen Larsen:      Correct - the same is true for English
00:19:40    Josh Hanson:       Shawna, what level would that healthOC math be?
00:19:51    Karen Larsen:      I don't like it, but this reinforces that this is what we have to do!
00:19:57    Josh Hanson:       interesting..
00:20:37    Josh Hanson:       Would be very good for an intro chem class
instead of 106
00:27:50    Seth Anderson:   https://www.ab928committee.org/
00:30:25    Shawna Bynum (she/her):      move to approve consent agenda

00:30:54    Nancy McEnery:    aye
00:33:28    Stacey Howard:    7.0 -  unanimous (14 ayes)
00:44:38    Naomi Chianese:  it would be great to have a flex day workshop where we could bring our existing syllabi and work together to update them with DEI in mind 00:44:55    Nancy McEnery:    For the previous DEI recommendations, do you have a hyperlink to this resource?

Curriculum_Model_Principles_and_Practices_June_2022.pdf
00:46:12    Tia Madison:      This can be included in the CRT # 2 workshop that is being developed.
00:46:53    Nancy McEnery:    This can also be included in a Faculty Resources Libguide from the library
01:10:53    Naomi Chianese:  when the unit change of a course is approved by curriculum does it automatically change in all of the places where it that course appears in the catalog?
01:13:59    Stacey Howard:    Bundling the course and impacted programs seems like a best practice.
01:15:15    Paul G.:    Move to adjourn!
01:15:17    Josh Hanson:      second
01:15:57    Josh Hanson:       thanks Seth and Katherine!
01:16:01    Paul G.:    Aye
